Judge's Comments

Some crowd pleasing wines here, the bronze and silver medals showing commendable freshness and balance. Top pointed wines showed greater complexity and yeast derived texture / aroma. A few faults - corks and other microbial issues here. But overall a demonstration that mainland Australia does make great sparkling.

Judge's Comments

Nice to see very few faults among this class. Very few herbal notes and good range of fruit. Better wines had lower obvious residual sugar and didn't show hard and bitter acidity, i.e. balanced. Good ripe flavours without overripe characters.

Judge's Comments

Clearly a variety that has a bright future in the region. The three top wines represent three different styles, all showing fragrant, fresh aromatics, but distinctively different palate shapes. Young vines doing well, will be fascinating to follow the progress of this variety.

A very compelling case for Fiano as seen in the top wine, as well as two very well made SSB blends. Freshness the key across all styles and varieties.

Judge's Comments

Best wines achieve power with silky structure, not dependant on oak, and had good length. Some lower pointed wines, picked too late, with over-ripe fruit. Others displayed out of balance tannins or minty flavours.

Judge's Comments

Generally ripe and fruity wines. Subtle, soft and fleshy. Very few faults - best wines made the most of the fragrant and complex characters as well as fully resolved tannin structure. Wonderful wines from 2013.

Amazing class in which quality combined with diversity to present the judges with a vexing dilemma to find the top wine. The region is capable of coaxing many varieties in the direction of excellence.

Two very good sparkling wines here, maturing gracefully with poise. A very good 8 year old chardonnay too, powerful and complex, convincing demonstration of aging potential.
