

WINTER REDS JULY 28-30

Adelaide Hills Wine Region

Join us for a sensuous wintery weekend where craft and seasons combine. Warm your toes in front of a roaring fire gazing at the rolling vistas with a glass of Shiraz, Pinot Noir or Tempranillo. Match your wine with a variety of winter delicacies prepared by some of South Australia's best chefs.

COSY CLASSES

For wine explorers, here the focus will be firmly on appreciating the outstanding excellence of Adelaide Hills wines. Hosted by an expert, guests will be taken through curated wine tasting flight, discussing points of interest on each wine. Many classes compare Adelaide Hills' Pinot and Syrah to their French equivalents.

FIRE + FEAST

Lunches and dinners where the focus is on a true feast of delectable dishes matched to exceptional Adelaide Hills red wines. Most are multiple-course sit-down dining affairs and are intended to take time for true indulgence. Fireplaces and heaters will abound, to ensure everyone stays comfortably warm.

TOUR + TASTE

Events for those who want to experience the Hill's diversity by visiting a few wineries in one day. Think live music and DJs, fire pits, mulled wine, casual food, and wine tastings, of course. Some of these events General Admission where $15 includes entry and a souvenir Riedel wine glass. Some are premium events which cost a little more.

GENERAL ADMISSION

Entry to General Admission events is via the purchase of a $15 souvenir Riedel AHWR glass. These can be purchased at the first General Admission venue you attend, presentation of this glass will then gain entry to all other General Admission events over the weekend. Should your glass get broken, you will be required to purchase another glass to enter other General Admission events.
