Judge's Comments

An encouraging line up of sparklings. The top four wines delightfully complex and fresh. The top gold, a 2004, is a pearler.

Judge's Comments

Wines that had a comfortable and understanding relationship with acidity were rewarded. Where it appeared balanced and naturally occurring, medals came. Where it appeared clumsily added, they didn't. Top wine appealed because of it's elegance and poise.

Judge's Comments

Mixed results here, as you might expect. The weaker wines were marked down for stale, dull characters, and excessive volatile acidity. The 2010 vintage showed well overall with two excellent examples winning gold.

Judge's Comments

An eclectic class by definition, with excitement and disappointment sprinkled through in equal measure. The two top wines are admirably open minded expressions of better known varieties. Merging varieties have some way to go, but the potential starting to poke through is encouraging.

Judge's Comments

A lot of people say the Hill's is a great Pinot Noir region. Judging this class might change their minds. A lot of premature development and out of condition wines lacking vibrancy and finesse. Pinot Noir is not just another dry red. Having said that, the top wines were impressive and showed diversity of style and approach. Time to recognise the Hills' isn't automatically a great Pinot Noir region - it is a region with specific sites with potential to make great Pinot.

A challenging class once again. A number of solid wines. The judges struggled to find enough naturally vibrant Cabernet fruit characters.

Judge's Comments

As always, an exciting class to judge. The 08's showed the effects of the March heat, the flavours generally more diffuse and in a number of wines, stewed. The 09's were the stronger group with fresher, more vibrant aromas and better delineated palates. Four excellent wines received gold. It was very difficult to choose between them. The fact that the top wine is an 08 is a testament to the skills of the grower and the maker alike.

Judge's Comments

The proverbial mixed bag. Treats and traps. Sangiovese very exciting, Tempranillo showing potential too. Hills' Nebbiolo gets plenty of media attention - too bad we judges can't see for ourselves.

Some diamonds among the corpses. Top wines would stand out in any company and most likely already have. Trophy winner emphatic argument for Chardonnay's place as arguably the region's greatest variety.

Judge's Comments

Great to see a strong class of older reds. The 01 Shiraz an older style with lots of aged complexity. The 05 Shiraz points the way forward for Adelaide Hills' Shiraz. A celebration of spice.
