Judge's Comments:

Top wines showed purity and zest of fruit. Two golds were examples of different styles, both equally valid. Judges saw some good use of yeast to add textures and layers to wine but in general yeast influences are being relied on too much.

Exhibitors need to watch VA production, sulphide, excessive leesy characters and high alcohol. Don't forget what the variety looks like in the vineyard.

17	2007	Paracombe Pinot Gris

Judge's Comments:

A promising group of wines with some good grigio styles. Balanced fruit flavours and generally well handled fruit and phenolics. To reach the top medals, wines need to show a bit more length and concentration.

Disappointing class of wines with too many wines showing development, under ripe fruit and bitterness. Judges wanted to see freshness, delicacy and more flavour.

A mixed group of wines. Top wine was fresh, fleshy, fragrant and showed good varietal purity but many other wines were disappointingly extracted and lacking freshness and varietal expression.

33	2007	Murdoch Hill Wines	48.5	Bronze

Judge's Comments:

Many wines were tough, tannic, over oaked and hot without suppleness or fresh fruit generosity. 2005 vintage particularly had a sameness and lack excitement.

The 2006 wines had much more prettiness and character. The top 2 wines showed lovely purity of fruit.
