Judge's Comments:

Perhaps reflecting a difficult season in 2006, there were few stand out wines and many lacked varietal character, intensity and finesse. Many wines had residual sugar, harsh acidity, elevated alcohol or lack of palate focus. The good news is a relatively high medal rate, reflecting plenty of good commercial wines.

Quite a strong class, with a high medal rate for this variety. The improvement of breed continues! Main problems were unbalanced tannins, staleness and overdone oak.

Judge's Comments:

Top wine is an excellent example of cabernet, most of the non-medal wines had either under or over ripe fruit and several had aged prematurely.

Judge's Comments:

A commendable class of Merlot with the tops wines showing good ripeness and oak balance. Ripeness (over and under) is still an issue with Merlot. Some premature development and brettanomyces issues.

Judge's Comments:

A very strong class, 23 medals out of 36 wines, and the strength of the silver medals is significant. Silvers for five of the more obscure varieties is very encouraging for alternative varieties in this region. They improve year by year.

Infinitely stronger class than the Exhibition Reds. Both Chardonnay and Riesling have good ageing potential in the region.
